Kelsey is an Associate in the firm's Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy Practice Group.

Kelsey works with debtors, secured and unsecured creditors, and other interested parties in matters involving Chapter 11 bankruptcies, out-of-court workouts, and related transactions. She also has experience in a wide variety of commercial litigation matters including creditors' rights litigation, enforcement of security interests, enforcement of domestic and foreign judgments, commercial foreclosures, and business disputes.

Kelsey earned her J.D. from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and her B.S. in Legal Studies from the University of Central Florida. While in law school, Kelsey served as the Executive Forum Editor for the Florida Law Review and as the Special Events Chair for the Law Association for Women.

Prior to joining Burr & Forman, Kelsey was an associate in the financial restructuring and insolvency group at an international law firm. She also served as a Judicial Extern in the U.S. Middle District of Florida for The Honorable Virginia Covington, The Honorable Mark Pizzo, and The Honorable Caryl Delano.
