Burr & Forman Atlanta Partner Jennifer Moseley was named to EB-5 Investors Magazine's "Top 15 Corporate Attorneys" list for 2023, marking the seventh year she has been recognized. She was first included on the list in 2017. The publication recognizes a select group of attorneys each year for their work in areas including corporate, immigration, and securities law.

EB-5 attorney rankings are selected through a careful process of EB-5 community member votes, input from the publication's editorial board, and analysis from an in-house team. Candidates are evaluated based on their experience in the EB-5 industry, their track record, and their reputation within the field.

Jennifer Moseley

Jennifer Moseley is a corporate and securities partner at Burr & Forman LLP in Atlanta and advises small start-ups to large public companies in various transactions and capital-raising activities. She enjoys assisting her clients in her role as a counselor to start-up and developmental stage companies.

Moseley was introduced to EB-5 in early 2008 and addressed securities law implications in EB-5 during the "early years" when securities law was not at the forefront of EB-5-related discussions. She continues to help clients navigate the intricacies of securities laws with practical solutions to meet their goals.
